<tbody>
<tr>
<td>NRIs Sessions</td>
<td>Maintain the standard set of sessions at the IGF 2023 (1 main session, 1 coordination session, up to 5 collaborative sessions)</td>
<td>NRIs to consider hosting some of the above-mentioned sessions intersessionally in conjunction with the regional IGFs (similar as the last year’s Youth Track was organized).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Promoting IGF Outputs

NRIs to act as IGF Ambassadors and help to bring the Addis Ababa IGF Messages to the attention of national and regional decision-makers (follow the same practice for Kyoto IGF Messages)

Share the messages with the relevant authorities and initiatives in the country.

Consider focusing NRIs agendas on some of 72 messages across the five themes from the IGF 2022 – where possible and relevant for the results of the public all for inputs.

NRIs-to-NRIs exchanges

Enable exchange of practices among NRIs on a topic of mutual interest to be facilitated intersessionally

Engage Japan IGF in NRIs planning process from early stages.

Exchange experiences on organizing SIGs and other capacity development initiatives.

Take stock of NRIs sustainability individually and collectively.

Exchange ideas on where the IGFs around the world see themselves in 2025 when the IGF mandate extension will be discussed?

Engage in other relevant processes such as GDC Consultations, Summit of the Future etc.

Have space at the IGF in Kyoto for NRIs to exchange good practices and advise new NRIs on successfully conducting the process.

Consider hosting a joint booth for informal exchanges and getting to know each other.

NRIs work recognition

The network to consider designing ways it could recognize good practices at the end of a cycle

Consider introducing quarterly newsletter on the NRIs accomplishments and outline 1 NRIs as an example of good practice

Other and next steps:

6. NRIs were asked to share the indications of possible dates of their annual meetings, as several global initiatives expressed interest in exploring hosting their regional processes back-to-back with regional IGFs.

7. IGF Secretariat to send the action points after the meeting to the mailing list. A draft work plan to be sent to the NRIs mailing list for 2-weeks consultations.

8. For any suggestions or questions regarding the Report, kindly contact the IGF Secretariat, NRIs Focal Point at: anja.gengo@un.org.
