FINAL IGF DAILY PRESS BRIEFING

16th Internet Governance Forum outcomes

10 DECEMBER, 13:00 CET, ROOM 25

As the 16th Internet Governance Forum (IGF) wraps up in Katowice, Poland, following five days of lively discussions over the course of 250 sessions attended by over 9,600 participants, the United Nations will present the main outcome and recommendations of the event – the Katowice IGF Messages.

What did this year's Forum result in? What are the most urgent recommendations for governments, private companies and other digital policy actors? What are the messages of the IGF multistakeholder community on cybersecurity, universal access, climate change and more? Learn the answers from IGF Secretariat experts.
