

IGF 2025 MAG Meeting VIII
Action items & next steps

10 June 2025 | 11:00 UTC | Online

1. Updates from the Host Country Co-Chair

- There will be no physical badges at the IGF 2025, and participants will be using their digital QR codes on their phones for environmental reasons.
- The Host Country will very soon confirm that transportation will be free during the week of the IGF by showing the digital QR code.
- Social events will all require a separate registration including a photo ID for security purposes.

2. Updates from the Secretariat

- Over 6400 participants and over 160 parliamentarians and parliamentary staff, as well as 38 press and journalists registered for the IGF 2025 so far.
- The registration deadline was extended to 18 June 2025.

3. Updates on IGF 2025 Main Sessions

- The organization of all three main sessions is in its final stage.
- Organizers are currently coordinating final logistics with the venue and organizing pre-calls with speakers and moderators.

4. Updates from MAG working groups and IGF intersessional work

Working Group on Strategy:

- The MAG WG on strategy will finalize the WSIS+20 high-level event session as soon as possible.
- The group will organize a hybrid meeting in Norway and will require a meeting room meeting.

Working Group on Youth Engagement:

- The WG on Youth Engagement will confirm mentors for 2 mentees assignments by end of week.
- The mentor-mentees matches will be announced before the week of the IGF.
- There will be an initial meeting between mentors and mentees organized during IGF 2025.

Working Group on Workshop Processes:

- The WG on workshop processes will analyze feedback received from IGF participants during taking stock to improve workshop proposal forms.
- The group plans on making suggestions for next year's workshop processes.

Policy Network on Artificial Intelligence (PNAI):

- The main session has nearly been finalized including a lineup of global South speakers
- The next PNAI call will take place immediately after this MAG call.

Policy Network on Internet Fragmentation (PNIF):

- The main session of PNIF is in shape and the Network still considers minor additions
- The next PNIF call will take place tomorrow, 11 June at 10:30 UTC.

Best Practice Forum on Cybersecurity (BPF):

- The organization of the main session is being finalized as well and they intend to submit the final report in November this year.

- The BPF is organizing a pre-IGF call next Tuesday.
- Dynamic Coalitions (DCs):
- The DCs developed four collaborative sessions around four topics/clusters, as well as a main session that will feature the reports from each of these clusters.
- 5. Any Other Business
- The IGF Secretariat will share the invites of IGF 2025 meetings with MAG members to block their calendars.
 - The IGF Secretariat will prepare an IGF 2025 one-pager to better engage government representatives.
