

IGF 2016 Workshop Report Template

Session Title	Is personal data 'mine' or there to be 'mined'
Date	7th December 2016
Time	10:45
Session Organizer	Hans Martens
Chair/Moderator	David Wright
Rapporteur/Notetaker
List of Speakers and their institutional affiliations	John Carr OBE Professor Sonia Livingstone OBE Auke Pals Larry Magid Professor Kathryn Montgomery Marsali Hancock Ana Neves Louise Marie Hurel
Key Issues raised (1 sentence per issue):	The impact of the new General Data Protection Regulations coming into force across Europe in May 2018 and the impact on social media providers. The contrast between how personal data is used by providers compared to how users expect it is used
If there were presentations during the session, please provide a 1-paragraph summary for each Presentation	John Carr OBE, Professor Sonia Livingstone OBE and Auke Pals kicked the session off by providing a multifaceted analysis of the incoming EU General Data Protection Regulation, due to be active in May 2018, including the obligations and expectations it introduces to providers. Turning the attention across the Atlantic, Larry Magid, Kathryn Montgomery and Marsali Hancock compared the similar controversies generated in the United States during the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) deliberations in the 1990s. Finally Ana Neves, and Louise Marie Hurel offered a balance perspective with a more global perspective.
Please describe the Discussions that took place during the workshop session: (3 paragraphs)	The floor was opened to questions A number of questions focused on terms and conditions, their length and complexity. A discussion continued with how they could be made more simple
Please describe any Participant suggestions regarding the way forward/ potential next steps /key takeaways: (3 paragraphs)

